Tonight

Hamilton at Hightstown, 7 p.m.

It will be no small task for Hamilton (2-2) to bounce back from last week's heartbreaking loss to rival Nottingham. With that said, Hightstown provides the ideal bounce-back opponent for the Hornets. Overshadowed in the Hornets' 41-35 loss was Jamie Williams' 17-touch, 239-yard, four-touchdown performance.

Hightstown (1-4) has been outscored by opponents on average by 21.0-7.6 ppg. If you take out the fourth quarter — where Hightstown has yet to score a point all season — that average drops to 11.8-7.6 ppg.

The Hornets sting the Rams, 24-7.

Florence at New Egypt, 7 p.m.

Behind 202 yards and two touchdowns on 27 carries from Marcus Rawls and Sam Ugowe, Florence (2-2) got back to its winning ways with a 24-21 come-from-behind win over Burlington City.

New Egypt (1-3) couldn't put together its first winning streak since it won four straight games to open last season, blowing a 19-8 lead at the half in losing to Woodrow Wilson, 22-19, last week.

Florence wins back-to-back games for the first time since last October, 22-17.

Bridgewater-Raritan at Hunterdon Central, 7 p.m.

Since getting shut out by Union in Week 1, Bridgewater-Raritan (4-1) has outscored its last four opponents by a combined score of 137-66.

Hunterdon Central (5-0) continued its run towards a possible third sectional title in four years with a 19-6 win over Elizabeth last Friday.

The Red Devils prevail in their last home game of the regular season, 26-16.

Hillsborough at Montgomery, 7 p.m.

After allowing a total of 15 points in its first two games of the season, Hillsborough (2-3) has allowed an average of 30 in it's last three games (all losses).

Quarterback D.J. Ruhlman and running back Kevin Azimi were at it again last week, combining for 503 yards and five touchdowns as Montgomery (4-1) won for the third straight week.

Cougars win four straight for the first time since '07, 34-21.

Pingry at South Hunterdon, 7 p.m.

Pingry (2-3) defeated Bound Brook, 35-21, two weeks ago. Bound Brook defeated South Hunterdon, 43-13, last week.

South Hunterdon (0-4) fell behind 37-0 to Bound Brook last week for its seventh straight loss.

Big Blue bowls over the Eagles, 41-14.

Ewing at Notre Dame, 7 p.m.
Live on WHWH 1350 AM

Despite 227 rushing yards from David Ogbonnaya, Ewing (2-3) needed overtime to get past Robbinsville, 21-20, last Saturday. To knock off undefeated Notre Dame, Ewing will need to cut down on the nearly 60 yards it averages in penalties.

Notre Dame (5-0) not only remained undefeated but did so with a dominant 27-7 win over WW-P South last Friday night. Through five weeks, the Irish have compiled some eye-popping stats. The most surprising number just may be the fact that Chappy Moore is dialing up an average of 36 rushes per game (as opposed to 16 passes).

It won't be easy, but Notre Dame stays perfect, 30-13.

Tomorrow

Steinert at Lawrence, 11 a.m.

After going winless and scoreless through the first two weeks of the season, Steinert (2-2) has responded with two straight wins, including the big upset of last weekend, 14-7, over previously undefeated Princeton. The Spartans' defense held a potent Princeton rushing attack to just 113 yards.

Lawrence (4-1) needed overtime, but bounced back from a 37-7 loss to Notre Dame two weeks ago with a 20-14 win on the road at Trenton last week. Jihad Bryant carried the football a career-high 40 times for a career-best 182 yards and two touchdowns. Expect similar carry and rush numbers from the sophomore standout.

Lawrence wins its sixth straight over Steinert, 24-14.

N. Burlington at Camden, 11 a.m.

Since defeating Woodrow Wilson, 13-0, two weeks ago, Northern Burlington (1-4) has lost two straight and is allowing 45 ppg. over the two contests.

After opening the season by scoring a major upset over Camden Catholic, Camden (1-4) has lost four straight games and is averaging just 6.5 ppg. on offense.

The Panthers' speed is too much for the Greyhounds, 21-13.

Trenton at Nottingham, noon

"Heartbreaking" nor "disheartening" are strong enough words to describe the last four weeks for Trenton (0-5), which enters having lost 16 straight games. Trenton's last four losses — to Notre Dame, WW-P South, Princeton and Lawrence — have come by an average of 5.3 points.

Nottingham (2-3) can't afford to look past Trenton or its unbelievable 34-point comeback, culminated by Dennis Hernandez's blocked field goal attempt he returned for the game-winning touchdown. Making the playoffs is still a realistic goal for Nottingham, but it needs to start playing all four quarters week-in and week-out.

Nottingham wins, 27-13.

Hopewell Valley at Princeton, 1 p.m.

Hopewell Valley (2-3) snapped a three-game losing streak with a 21-12 win over Hightstown on Homecoming last Saturday. While the first playoff berth in school history seems to be a long shot, an upset over Princeton could go a long way to reviving those hopes.

Four turnovers and a stingy Steinert defense directly led to Princeton (4-1) losing its first game of the season last week. For the Little Tigers to establish themselves as legitimate playoff contenders, a resounding victory is a necessity.

Not the prettiest of wins, but Princeton prevails, 21-14.

Robbinsville at Clayton, 1 p.m.

Robbinsville (1-4) showed some resolve in bouncing back from a 54-6 loss to Lincoln two weeks ago by taking Ewing into overtime last week before falling, 21-20. The Ravens must reduce the nine penalties it committed for 81 yards last week.

Clayton (1-1) has had two weeks to prepare for the showdown after defeating a very bad Wildwood team, 39-6, Oct. 3.

Robbinsville rolls, 24-7.

Allentown at L. Cape May, 2 p.m.

It's not rocket science: turn the football over five times and you're likely to get steam-rolled. Allentown (2-2) learned that lesson the hard way last week in losing to WW-P North, 43-17. The Redbirds still managed 287 yards of offense, their second-highest output of the season.

In the three games it didn't forfeit this season, Lower Cape May (0-4) has been outscored by a total of 98 to 25 on the season.

Another career day from Ross Scheuerman and the Redbirds, 42-6.

Game of the Week

WW-P South at WW-P North, 2 p.m.
Live on WHWH 1350 AM

WW-P South (2-3) didn't play as bad as the 27-7 final from last Friday's loss to Notre Dame indicates. But the 581 yards the Pirates have allowed to Hamilton and Notre Dame in each of the last two weeks is an area they need to improve on. That task will be a difficult one when it travels to take on a WW-P North team that is averaging 310 yards.

Behind Sean Reed's third 190-plus rushing performance of the season, WW-P North (4-1) rolled to a 43-17 win over Allentown last Saturday to all but claim the Colonial Valley Conference Patriot Division title. The Knights have turned the football over 18 times through five games; something they'll have to cut back on to pull off the upset, which, despite the records, a WW-P North win would be.

The Knights pull off the upset, 24-21.

Peddie at Lawrenceville, 2 p.m.

Since defeating Pennington, 10-0, to open the season, Peddie (1-3) has lost three straight games by a combined score of 86-34.

Lawrenceville (2-2) lost its sixth straight game to MAPL, Mercer County and Route 206 rival Hun, 27-9, last week.

Big Red scores a big 20-14 win over another MAPL and Mercer rival.

Conrad Science (Del.) at Princeton Day School, 2 p.m.

They're certainly paying more attention to science than sport at Conrad Science (0-4) as the football team has been outscored by an astounding 187-8 on the season.

PDS (2-3) fell into a 28-0 hole and couldn't recover in a 28-6 loss to St. Andrews (Del.) last week. To snap the two-game skid, the Panthers must improve upon the nearly 300 yards rushing they've allowed over the last two weeks.

The Panthers pounce early and often, 28-0.

Cinnaminson at Bordentown, 2 p

Following a three-game win strea to open the season, Cinnaminso (3-1) was dealt its first loss of th season, 28-20, to Bishop Eustac two weeks ago.

Bordentown (1-3) snapped a thr game skid by picking up its first 23-8, over Riverside last Saturda

The bye week benefits Cinnamin son, Pirates 28-14.

Blair Academy at Hun, 2:30 p.

Blair (3-1) responded with a resounding 38-10 romp of Merce burg last weekend after its loss t Wyoming Seminary two weeks a

Hun (2-2) put together its most impressive victory of the season, 27-9, over a much-improve Lawrenceville squad last weeke Brendan Morgan is averaging 14 yards on the ground for the Raid

Blair wins this meeting for the se ond straight time, 28-21.

Springfield (Pa.) at Pennington, 2:30 p.m.

Following a four-game losing str to open the season, Springfield (2-4) has picked up the pieces w consecutive wins over Jenkintow and Lower Moreland.

Pennington (3-2) jumped out to 34-0 lead and never looked back crushing New Hope-Solebury, 42 last weekend. The re-emergence the running game behind Malco Perry to go along with the Keith Dearden-led passing game has p huge dividends for the Red Raid

Red Raiders remain undefeated home, 34-24.

Last week: 15-3.
Overall: 54-26 (.675).
