Tonight

Nottingham at Ewing, 7 p.m.

Live on WHWH 1350 AM

n (3-4) had its hopes of rallying from a 0-3 start to reach the up III Central playoffs crushed last week in a 39-13 loss to West ainsboro South. The CVC's top-ranked offense still managed 345 urned the football over three times - two of which the Pirates or touchdowns.

) struck first last week but allowed Lawrence to score a pair of d touchdowns in falling to the Cards', 14-7. David Ogbonnaya with the top running backs in the conference by rushing for 124 fourth 100-plus yard performance in the last five games.

tars light up the Blue Devils, 32-14.

Bordentown at Willingboro, 7 p.m.

n (1-5) is looking to snap a two-game losing streak in which it utscored by Cinnaminson and Florence by a combined score of (3-3) had its three-game winning streak snapped with a 19-14 op Eustace at home last Friday.

ras triumph, 23-7.

Florence at Burlington Township, 7 p.m.

-2) won its third straight game, and second consecutive victory , with a 14-0 win over Bordentown last Saturday.

Township (5-2) bounced back from a 40-0 shellacking to Pem- weeks ago with a 24-0 blanking of Camden Monday.

s push their win streak to four, 21-14.

New Egypt at Bishop Eustace, 7 p.m.

(1-5) has been shutout by a combined score of 65-0 in back-to- s to Florence and Palmyra.

noved from its only blemish of the season to Paul IV, Bishop -1) got back into the win column by squeaking past Willingboro, Friday.

lers stave off a late New Egypt rally, 23-20.

Paul VI at Northern Burlington, 7 p.m.

I) is coming off of a bye after remaining perfect with a 28-17 win o Eustace two weeks ago.

urlington (2-5) has won both of its games, over Woodrow Wilson en, via shutout. In its five losses, the Greyhounds have been 144-84.

soar to a 34-13 win.

Hunterdon Central at North Hunterdon, 7 p.m.

Central (7-0) kept its perfect record intact with a 12-7 win over he road last Friday night. Five of the Red Devils' seven games decided by nine points or less.

eks following an impressive win over Westfield, North Hunter- ll to a so-so Warren Hills squad, 25-20, last Friday.

vils roll, 28-7.

Immaculata at Montgomery, 7 p.m.

a (6-1) enters tonight's showdown on a dominating five-game having outscored its opponents 177-20, pitching three shutouts ess.

y (5-2) was brought back to Earth following a four-game win- getting steamrolled by Westfield, 38-0, on the road last Friday.

gh Friday night for the Cougars, Immaculata 33-6.

Roselle Park at South Hunterdon, 7 p.m.

Roselle Park (0-6) had its losing streak reach double-digits dating back to last season with a 33-6 loss to Bound Brook two Friday's ago.

South Hunterdon (0-6) had its losing streak extended to nine games dating back to last season with a 20-6 loss to Manville at home last Friday.

Someone's streak has to come to an end, South Hunterdon 13-6.

Tomorrow

WW-P North at Hamilton, 11 a.m.

WW-P North (4-3) needs to snap its two-game losing streak and get past Hamilton to have any shot of reaching the NJSIAA playoffs for the first time since 2004. The Knights managed to accrue 221 yards rushing - the most allowed by Notre Dame all season - but turned the football over four times, something it simply can't afford against the takeaway-happy Hornets.

It wasn't the prettiest game, but Hamilton (4-2) got past Hopewell Valley, 7-6, last week despite being out-gained 248-198. The Hornets got three takeaways in the victory to push its season plus-minus in the turnover margin to +7 - third best in the CVC.

Turnovers, again, are the key for both teams, Hamilton 20-13.

Delaware Military Academy at Princeton Day, noon

Delaware Military (4-3) is just two weeks removed from pounding Morrisville, 41-14. The Bulldogs defeated Princeton Day 37-7 to open the season.

Princeton Day (3-4) must find ways to generate more offense as it gained just 18 yards of total offense in a 30-8 loss to Perkiomen last week.

Likely another long day for the Panthers, Falcons 28-6.

Hightstown at Trenton, 1 p.m.

Hightstown (1-6) had its losing streak fall to four following a 30-6 loss to Princeton last Friday. The Rams have shown they can move the ball through the air, but the 43 rushing yards they've gained over the last two weeks will not cut it.

Trenton (0-7) dropped is sixth straight heart-breaker as its losing streak fell to 18 games with a 7-6 loss to Steinert last Saturday. When looking to snap a skid as long as the Tornadoes have, you simply can't afford the 10 penalties for 117 yards they committed against the Spartans - all of which came in the second half.

"The Streak" finally comes to an end for "The High", 12-7.

Lawrence at Hopewell Valley, 1 p.m.

Lawrence (5-2) got back into the win column following an upset loss to Steinert two weeks ago, although a 14-7 victory over Ewing wasn't nearly as dominant as Rob Radice and his staff would have liked. The Cards should get a major boost when versatile senior running back Keith Sherman returns from a four-game absence following a knee injury.

Hopewell Valley (2-5) lost for the second consecutive time last week, 7-6 to Hamilton, but it was another competitive effort from the young and inexperienced squad. Only one time this season - a 29-7 loss to WW-P North - have the Bulldogs allowed more than three touchdowns.

If Sherman is healthy, Lawrence 28-7.

Game of the Week

Notre Dame at Princeton, 11 a.m.

Live on WHWH 1350 AM

Notre Dame (7-0) will look to remain the CVC's lone undefeated team when it gets what should be its best test since it posted a resounding 27-7 win over West Windsor-Plainsboro South three weeks ago. The Irish defense is allowing just 9.1 ppg., 3.1 of which have come in the fourth quarter when the second unit has seen a good amount of time.

Princeton (6-1) shook off its only loss of the season by pounding Hightstown, 30-6, last week. Senior running backs Josh Gordon and Trevor Barsamian are averaging a combined 159 yards on 35 carries for the season. If the Little Tigers are able to run the ball, limit turnovers and control the clock, an upset win is within the realm of possibility.

The Irish have just too much talent on both sides of the ball, Notre Dame 35-14.

Hun at Poly Prep (N.Y.), 1 p.m.

Hun (4-2) has at least a share of the MAPL title within its grasp following an improbable come-from-behind win over Peddie last week. The Raiders will need to find a way to bottle up that momentum and take it to Brooklyn if they hope to pull off the upset.

Poly Prep (6-1) rebounded from its only loss of the season - 21-20 to Benedictine (Va.) - two weeks ago with a 23-18 win over Salisbury (Conn.) last weekend.

Poly Prep is a little too powerful, 27-13.

Allentown at Ramsey, 1:30 p.m.

If the season-long trend continues, Allentown (3-3) could be in for a big win tomorrow. The Redbirds have alternated wins and losses each weeks this season and are coming off of a 36-15 loss to Pennington last week in which it still managed 349 yards of total offense.

Ramsey (5-1) rolls into the meeting riding a four-game win streak in which it has scored 40 or more points on three occasions.

Ramsey puts an end to the Redbirds trend, 29-21.

Academy of the New Church at Pennington, 1:30 p.m.

Since opening the season with a four-game win streak, Academy of the New Church (4-2) has lost three straight and been outscored 88-19 over the last two weeks.

Pennington (5-2) continued its dominating streak by picking up its fourth consecutive win with a 36-15 victory over Allentown last Friday. The Red Raiders have outscored their last four opponents by a combined score of 134-40. Malcolm Perry has rushed for at least 78 yards and a touchdown in each of the last five games.

Pennington pushes the win streak to five, 33-10.

WW-P South at Steinert, 2 p.m.

Live on WHWH 1350 AM

WW-P South (4-3) remained in the NJSIAA Group IV Central playoff picture with a 39-13 thrashing of Nottingham last week. While the Pirates received a pair of defensive touchdowns that certainly played a large role in the win, Todd Smith and his staff had to be pleased with their first 300-plus-yard outing from the offense of the season.

Steinert (4-2) rode yet another outstanding performance from its defense to its fourth consecutive win - 7-6 over Trenton last week. While the Spartans have been able to get by with less-than-stellar performances from its offense, that most likely won't be the case tomorrow if they hope to shock the Pirates and almost certainly secure an NJSIAA Group III Central playoff berth.

WW-P South's offense propels it to a 21-7 victory.

Wyoming Seminary at Lawrenceville, 2 p.m.

Wyoming Seminary (3-1) hasn't played in two weeks following a bye week and a forfeit by Valley Forge Military Academy last week. The Blue Knights defeated Hun, 28-7, which defeated Big Red 27-9 Oct. 10.

Lawrenceville (3-3) scored one of the biggest upsets in the school's recent history and compensated for tough back-to-back losses with a 12-10 win over Blair last Saturday.

The layoff doesn't hurt the Blue Knights, 22-14.

Peddie at Mercersburg (Pa.), 2 p.m.

Peddie (2-4) gets the perfect opponent in a scuffling Mercersburg squad to bounce back from last week's last-minute loss to rival Hun. Senior tailback Gary Sharp has rushed for 200 yards, and Rhett Bender has passed for 278 yards over the last three games for the Falcons.

Mercersburg (1-6) has lost six straight games having been outscored 139-29 in the process.

Peddie pounds the Blue Storm, 24-6.

Last week: 12-3.

Overall 79-34 (.699).