Princeton at Steinet, 2 p.m.

Princeton (4-0) avoided getting upset by Trenton last week when Josh Gordon picked off a pass in the end zone in the closing seconds. The biggest difference for Princeton through four games has been the second and fourth quarters where it's out-scoring opponents by an average of 19.5 per game.

After eight quarters of scoreless football, Steinet (1-2) broke into the scoring column and win column with a 20-14 win over Hopewell Valley last week.

Princeton moves to 5-0 for the first time in forever, 31-13.
